

CALL TO ARTISTS FOR ALL NEW CHILDREN'S GALLERY!

Art 120 is partnering with the Bethlehem Community Center, and local artist Christina Thongnopnua, to bring an ALL NEW traveling art exhibition for children to Chattanooga, TN! The Painted Story Children's Gallery will be a unique annually curated experience for community members, students, artists, and illustrators!

Artists will be featured for a year-long exhibition that will end with an auction of the prints, and if the artist so chooses, the original artwork. The submission deadline for the artist application, attached here as Art120PaintedStoryArtistApplication.pdf, is March 20th, 2017 by midnight. We launch in June!

The mission of this Gallery is to bring art to children that they will understand, find interesting, and can view well, visually The Gallery's art will be framed uniformly and installed at the prospective target audience's eye level, specifically kindergarten to fifth grade students, teachers, and their families.

We look forward to working with you, Chattanooga, on bringing a child-centric program to you! Email edu@art120.org or paintedstoryart@gmail.com if you're interested in applying to be an artist or hosting the exhibition! We are searching for spaces that will host the Gallery for a month-long period, so please inquire with either email for more details about how to become a Gallery host or a featured artist!

Art 120 is a 501(c)3 organization that is centered on the Awareness, Reaching, and Teaching of arts and Maker education in and around the Chattanooga community through creative-problem solving and STE(A)M-based learning. We serve all demographics, specifically focusing on underserved communities without stable access to art or the opportunities to liberally create and learn sustainable skills.

Initiatives like the Painted Story Children's Gallery, Urban Art Bike Camp, Art-Car-A-Van, and Maker Palaces are just some of the arts education programs that Art 120 provides to students and teachers. We truly hope that you consider supporting, participating, or volunteering with Art 120 and thank you!
